9:00-9:30am Registration

9:25-930am Welcome

9:30-10:30am Death Has Many Faces

Your grandfather's death certificate was not available. So how do you find his death date? Many different records contain that all important death information. Learn about some of death's other faces.

10:30-11:00am Break and Door Prizes

11:00-12:00noon Developing A Genealogical Research Plan

We plan for major events or personal vacations. But many of us never put that same preparation into our family research. Discover how a plan can help maximize research and avoid wasted dollars, time, effort, and energy.

12:noon-1:15pm Lunch on your own. There are a variety of restaurants in the nearby River Marker area.

1:15-2:15pm They Served Our Country

As we go through our home sources, it may suggest that we need to start our search of military records. Learn about some basic techniques to military research.

2:15-2:30pm Break and Door Prizes

2:30-3:30pm Newspaper Research-More Than Obituaries

Newspapers contain obituaries. But newspapers can provide us so much more information than just obituaries! See what searching the local newspaper can tell you about your family
